THERE WAS NO DUEL.

Mr. Wallace Asked a Meeting but Mr. Bryan Declined it.

CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

Feeling Aggrieved at the Times's Critieism and Refusat to Retract, Mr. Wallace Thus Sought Satisfaction.

Mr. Jefferson Wallace, secretary of the City Democratic Committee, was arrested last night on a warrant sworn out by Special-Officer John T. Hall, charging him with committing "a breach of the peace in sending a challenge to mortal combat" to Mr. Joseph Bryan, editor and proprietor of the Richmond Times. Mr. Wallace was balled in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the Police Court Monday morning, Mr. James T. Ferriter becoming his surety.

This arrest was the culmination of trouble that had existed between Mr. Wallace and the Times for some weeks. At the meeting of the City Democratic Committee on the night of September the 19th Mr. Wallace offered the following Resolved, That the Executive Committee of this body see the managing editor of each of the dailies, and request that they instruct their reporters in future only to record the action of the committee in a brief way, and not comment on the views or expressions of individual members.

In speaking to the resolution, Mr. Wallesse while discipling personal feeling In speaking to the resolution, Mr. Wallace, while disclaiming personal feeling in the matter, indulged in some criticism of the Times's report of a previous meeting of the committee, and of an editorial in that paper referring to Captain Cunningham Hall, and Mr. John D. Murrell, who was the Times's reporter at the meeting of the 19th, and also at the previous meeting, replied in kind in his report which appeared in the Times of the 29th.

HE WROTE A CARD. Mr. Wallace, feeling himself aggrieved, had a personal interview with Mr. Bryan on the 21st, and asked him if he would publish, his (Wallace's) oreply to the Times's criticism. This Mr. Bryan con-

When, however, the reply was submitted Mr. Bryan returned it to Mr. Wallace with certain expressions in it submitted Mr. Bryan returned it to Mr. Wallace with certain expressions in it marked, and the statement that it would be printed if these expressions were eliminated.

Mr. Wallace declined to eliminate these expressions, and at the meeting of the expressions, and at the meeting of the City Committee on the night of the 27th City Committee on the night of the 27th was a second of the committee on the night of the 27th was a second of the committee on the night of the 27th was a second of the committee on the night of the 27th was a second of the committee of the of September read his reply before that body, and made a speech, in which he again sharply criticised the Times and Mr. Murrell, and the latter, in his report of the meeting which appeared the Stib, returned to the charge, characterizing Mr. Wallace's remarks as "assenine" and "malicious." On the same morning Captain Cunningham Hall delivered to Mr. Bryan a note from Mr. Wallace, in which the latter said:

"I demand a proper and satisfactory Council.

"In case you decide not to make the amend honorable, do me the favor to say whether I may look to you for redress. My friend, Captain Cunningham Hall, who bears this note, will call for your reply to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

When Captain Hall came for the answer, Mr. Bryan took the position that he was desirous of having the matter impartially investigated, but would do nothing, unless the last two notes of Mr. Wallace were withdrawn, and after consultation with Mr. Wallace, Captain Hall withdrew them, the former's understanding being, he says, that the withdrawal was temporary. Mr. Bryan then submitted the case to Judge George L. Christian for investigation, and that gentleman, after hearing the statements of a number of the members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the press who reported the meeting of the committee, and of members of the pressure of the pressu tee, gave as his opinion that Mr. Bryan

This being a challenge to fight a duel, I have no hesitation in declining to accept it for the following reasons:

First. I profess and try to be a Christian, and the idea to such an one of settling a controversy by a duel is utterly at the second. I am a second is under the second is a second. This note was taken to Major John Poe's office by Mr. William L. Royall, of the editorial staff of the Times, and delivered to Mr. Wallace Washington, the Chief's clerk. As Major Poe is absent from the city, Mr. Washington sent it to Captain Pleasants, of the First District acting chief, who placed it in the to Captain Pleasants, of the First Dis-trict, acting chief, who placed it in the hands of Special Officer Hall. On Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar. Frederick Greenwood, of Norfolk, grand commander, will assemble. The proceedings of this body will be interesting, but short. Up to a few years ago, the Grand Commandery meetings were attended with dress-parades, but this feature has failen into disfavor, and now the meetings are "strictly business."

On Thursday night there will be a Grand Templar banquet at the Temple, at which most of the Richmond "fraters" will appear. There will be no set specches. These occasions will draw many prominent Masons from all parts of the State. In Biue-Lodge Masonry an interesting question is who will be the next district deputy grand master. Mr. Bryan, in answer to this, made the following proposition:

"I propose that the objectionable language shall be submitted to three gentlemen; one to be chosen by you; one by Mr. Murrell, and the third by the two so chosen, and that the facts of the case shall be heard by these gentlemen, to be presented by Mr. Murrell and yourself, with such testimony as either of you may choose to advance. Upon this hearting these referees shall make an award, and their decision shall be final, and if it is determined that you have been wronged. I will cause the award to be published in the Times, and will express much regret that you should have been wronged in its columns."

Mr. Wallace, in a letter dated the 29th, declined to admit the propriety of arbitration, fterated his demand that the "offensive language" of the report of the 25th be retracted, and in conclusion wrote:

MR. WALLACE'S FINAL LETTER.
A copy of Judge Christian's report was sent to Mr. Wallace, by Mr. Bryan, with a note from the latter stating that it appeared from the report that The Times had done Mr. Wallace no wrong, and regretting that the controversy had arisen, and on yesterday the report was returned with the following note:

The Reform School.

Mr. A. E. Jaffeux, house father of the Reform School at Laurel Station, was in the city yesterday, and returned at night to his charge. He reports the school in a flourishing condition, and that it numbers 72 boys, ranging in age from 8 to 20 years. From letters received at the institution, it is learned that some of the discharged boys are now filling responsible positions. This is true of a boy from Norfolk, who at one time was thought incorrigible.

GRAND MASONIC BODIES

They Will Mest Here This Week—General Praternity Netes.

This will be an important week to Masons of Virginia. Two grand bodies will meet in this city. The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will be convened at the Masonic Temple Tuesday at 6 P. M. Most Excellent W. Lewis Jeffries, of Callpeper, is grand high priest, and will preside. No very serious business will come before the Grand Chapter, but all Royal Arch Masons are interested in its doings, and the attendance will be quite large.

Right Excellent George W. Poe, of this city, is the third officer of the Grand Chapter, and at the election on this occasion will be advanced to the second position. The proceedings will close Wednesday evening.

THE TIVOLI REMODELLED. Improvements at a Popular Restaurant on

The Tivoli, corner of Cary and Thirteenth streets, has long held the position of a leading Restaurant in the commercial centre of the city. It is known not only as a place where merchants and others could refresh the inner man with the best of liquids and solids, but as a sort of annex to all the business exchanges. Its enterprising proprietor, Mr. Henry Reuger has, however, determined to add to its attractions and popularity and convenience in every respect. He has, therefore, thoroughly remodelled the old Tivoli and refurnished it in elegant style. The finishing of the bar, cigar-stand, and lunch-counters is in oak of elegant design, the walls have been decorated in rich though subdued tints, and the general effect of the renovation is to make one of the prestiest rooms in the city. The new arrangement gives more space for the conduct of the business and still leaves a private room for those who may wish to converse over a business matter. No expense has been spared to render the Tivoli complete in all its appointments. The bar and cellars are stocked with the finest wines and liquors, the best brands of imported and domestic cigars will be found on the stand, and Mr. Reuger's cook cannot be beat. From the lunch-counter meals that cannot be excelled will be served. The attendance at the Tivoli will continue as it has always been—polite and efficient. been-polite and efficient.

Are You Open To Argument?

SN'T it a significant fact that the converts are all to ready-made clothes? One by one you are understanding more about ready-made goodness. The waste of time and money having clothes made to order is becoming more apparent.

We're gaining customers.

The tailors are losing them.

At one half the cost is a strong argument. Our guarantee to give you satisfaction or give you your money back-makes the experiment a safe one for you to try.

If your tailor is to be believed you're a pitiably deformed mortal. He tries to make you think there is something crude and unfinished about the garments you can "jump right in." That's all bosh! There isn't a custom shop in this city that can turn out any finer Suits than we've got on our countersnow. They can't buy any finer fabrics than we've used. They can't trim any more elegantly-make any more carefully-cut any more stylishly-fit any more perfectly-than hundreds and hundreds of Single and Double-Breasted Sack Suits-Three- and Four-button Cutaway Frocks-Double-breasted Frocks-Full Dress Suits-and Separate Trousers that comprise our inimitable stock. The same fashionplates direct our shears as theirs. We keep strictly within the bounds of genteel, refined effects. And when we say $15, $20, $25, or $30, we don't wonder it's a strange sound to your ears after the $30 to $60 askings you've been in the habit of hearing. But the only difference is the price. You can't get such clothes ready-made everywhere, though-nowhere else in Richmond. You can pay more—but there isn't our variety-nor the same high-class work to show for it. Their styles are not up to date-they're lacking in the fine points that you are used to. But the price is there-$5 or $10 more than ours. We'll leave it to you-we'll leave to any impartial judge if better Suits can be produced. We're as near the top of perfection as it is possible to get.
